

Peak Performing Swim Schools Seminar

From Good to Great to Peak Performing

PRESENTATIONS

Friday 17th

Chris Robb, Bali

Power of Pause

The massive value of stepping back before moving forward. Chris will take you on a journey highlighting the value of stepping back before moving forward in times of crisis and/or instigating significant change. He will share real life examples from both his personal life, which started off growing up poor on a farm in Zimbabwe, and his experiences building an international business delivering some of the biggest mass participation events including the 60,000 participant Singapore Marathon.

Avi Liran, Singapore

Creating Delightful Leadership

Can you 'delight' others as a leader if you are unable to find you 'inner delight'?

How Can I lead with my inner delight when I am so busy with work?

How do I harness the power of positivity to become a positive leader in the workplace?

In this interactive, thought provoking and entertaining talk, Avi introduces the secrets to the Deliveing Delight model, and why before creating a delightful team culture, leaders first need to find their 'inner delight'. Avi challenges the audience to expand their comfort zone, that every leader can learn the rituals to distress, reenergize, be positive, and be Chief Delighting

Offers able to lead their organisation to the next level.

Daniel Lee, Singapore

First Time Leadership

In this thought provoking, interactive and research based talk, Daniel introduces the audience to a journey that has taken over two man years of in-depth interviews, results in over 2000 years of combined leadership experience from over 160 senior and first time leaders from over 26 countries in 6 continents, to determine the secrets to successfully leading others. Originally meant for aspiring and first time leaders to help them understand leadership and to successfully lead others, Daniel has condensed and now offers the 'secrets' that can improve leadership success, and take your organisation to the next level.

Chris Robb

Avi Liran

Daniel Lee